-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

1. Applicant's Amendment received January 9, 2004 has been reviewed. The REMARKS/ARGUMENTS are convincing. Thus, the previous rejection is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC §101

2. Claims 1-9, 16, 17, 25-33 and 39-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The basis of this rejection is set forth in a two-prong test of:

- (1) whether the invention is within the technological arts; and
- (2) whether the invention produces a useful, concrete, and tangible result.

For a claimed invention to be statutory, the claimed invention must be within the technological arts. Mere ideas in the abstract (i.e., abstract idea, law of nature, natural phenomena) that do not apply, involve, use, or advance the technological arts fail to promote the "progress of science and the useful arts" (i.e., the physical sciences as opposed to social sciences, for example) and therefore are found to be non-statutory subject matter. For a process claim, the recited process must somehow apply, involve, use, or advance the technological arts.

In the present case, claim 1 only recites an abstract idea. The recited steps of promoting intellectual property does not apply, involve, use, or advance the technological arts since all of the recited steps can be performed in the mind of the user or by use of a pencil and paper. These steps only constitute an idea of how to select an insurance policy over another. As is the terms "host station having at least one database" and a "processor based system" do not provide a line of demarcation to provide distinguishing claim language.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. Claims 1-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kurland, US 4,603,232 in view of Schulze, Jr. US, 6,233,564.

Kurland discloses a plurality of intellectual property items, e.g. 10, consumer stations, e.g. 14, 16, 18, 20, host station, e.g. 12, survey data, e.g. 52. Kurland does not appear to disclose determining interest in a selected intellectual property item based upon the survey information.

Schulze discloses the common knowledge of providing interest to buy a selected intellectual property item based upon survey information.

To have provided interest to buy a selected intellectual property item based upon survey information for the intellectual property items of Kurland would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art in view of Schulze. The motivation for doing such would have been implementing common knowledge and well-known buying criteria used in the selection of a particular intellectual property item. Regarding confidential information, the use of personal identification numbers (PINS) were common knowledge in the art and to have used such would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

Again, the Examiner expresses regret that compact prosecution of the present Application has been delayed.

4. Further pertinent references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.
